

SURFERS ETIQUETTE

Don't drop in

Surfer A is nearer the shoulder and has right of way. B must give way to A.

- If B does catch the wave he/she is "dropping-in" on surfer A.

Caught inside – Stay inside

Surfer A should try to avoid surfer B who is either stationary or paddling out.

- B must paddle into the broken wave so as not to interfere with A.

Don't Snake

Surfer B is not entitled to catch the wave that has already been caught and ridden by A.

- This is a 'Snake', do not snake.

Never throw your board

Surfer B has fallen off the board and let go.

- Always hold onto your board so that it does not hit others causing serious injury

Paddle wide to stay alive

Surfer A, riding the wave, should try to avoid surfer B who is either stationary or paddling out.

- Paddle wide to allow A to make full use of the wave.

Never surf beyond your ability

It takes many years and lots of experience to ride challenging waves.

- If you are a learner, don't go out in a crowded lineup or in big surf
